ORDER

On December 30, 2024, United States Magistrate Judge Suzanne Mitchell issued a Report and Recommendation recommending that the Court dismiss Plaintiff Anthony J. Romero’s claim against Defendant FCI-El Reno with prejudice as an improperly named party, as well as his emergency call-button claim without prejudice to re-filing for lack of subject matter jurisdiction [Doc. No. 9 at p. 8].

Judge Mitchell informed Plaintiff of his right to file objections to the Report and Recommendation, instructed him that such objections were due by January 21, 2025, and advised that a failure to object “waives the right to appellate review of both factual and legal questions contained herein.” Id.

To date, neither an objection nor a request for extension of time to object to the Report and Recommendation has been filed. With no objections being filed within the time prescribed, on de novo review, the Court ADOPTS the Report and Recommendation in its entirety. Accordingly, Plaintiff’s claim against FCI-El Reno is DISMISSED with prejudice, and Plaintiff’s emergency call-button claim is DISMISSED without prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 5th day of February, 2025.

DAVID L. RUSSELL
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
